Announcements

- There will be a special meeting next Sunday evening to approve a motion from the deacons to purchase and construct a storage shed on the property for not more than $7,500.
- Saturday, Oct. 5, is our annual church work day. Some of the targeted projects include pruning the foliage along the south side of the parking lot, cleaning out window wells, cleaning out the shed and priming the wood trim of the exterior doors. Pizza will be served for lunch along with side dishes others bring in.
- Updated church directories are available in the foyer.

Membership in Fellowship Baptist Church conveys a number of privileges and rights. Not only does membership provide the believer with a sense of belonging, but it...also provides a basic qualification for service in the church, the holding of any office, and participation in church business...
